86TH ANNUAL LULAC NATIONAL PRE-CONVENTION & CONVENTION

July 6-11, 2015
University of Utah, Salt Lake City & Calvin L. Rampton Salt Palace Convention Center
Salt Lake City, Utah

THE POWER OF LATINO UNITY

The League of United Latin American Citizens invites you to participate in the 86th Annual LULAC National Convention & Exposition. As the premier Hispanic convention, the LULAC National Convention draws over 20,000 participants each year including the top leaders from government, business, and the Hispanic community.

Pre-Convention and Convention Rules

While we treat every participant with respect, there are certain rules that must be followed. Please review and respect the rules below in order to ensure participant safety, maintain the integrity of the program, and preserve our ability to provide the LULAC Youth Pre-Convention and Convention for future generations of Latino youth.

At All Times

- Be respectful of your fellow participants.
- Take care of yourself (rest and eat well).
- Be aware of how you portray yourself (dress appropriately, respond respectfully, and be prepared for all events).
- Follow the directions of the LULAC staff and chaperones at all times.
- Absolutely NO smoking, alcohol, or federal illegal drug use is allowed (tobacco-free zone).

During Sessions and Special Events

- All electronic devices must be turned off (cell phone, iPod, tablet, laptop, handheld game console, kindle/nook, etc.).
- Provide speakers with your full attention and respect (listen, take notes, ask questions).
- Limit side conversations (you will have time to chat later with chaperones, speakers, and other participants).
- Dress professionally (see dress code suggestions below).

At the Residence Halls at University of Utah, Salt Lake City

- NEVER leave the dormitory without your chaperone (restaurants, vending machines, stores, meetings, etc.).
- Absolutely NO young men in the rooms of young ladies and NO young ladies in the rooms of young men.
- Lights will be turned out at the designated time set by LULAC staff.

At the Convention:

- Must abide by Youth Agenda and attend all scheduled workshops/ luncheons/dinners.
- May only “explore” exhibit area during scheduled times.

Consequences

You will be given one opportunity to correct your behavior if you break any one of the rules. After your first warning, your parents or Council Sponsor will be notified. Should your behavior remain unacceptable, you will be sent back home at your expense/ legal guardian’s expense.

Participating in the LULAC National Youth Pre-Convention and Convention

Dress Code Suggestions: You are expected to dress in a casual business-like fashion. Do not over-pack. Remember that you will be walking a lot and will have your picture taken each day. With this in mind, we suggest the following:

- Self Identifying Young Men: One suit OR a sport coat with two pairs of dress pants; three or four dress shirts with matching ties; and comfortable dress shoes to match. Also pack casual attire (two or three shirts, shorts and/or jeans) and comfortable walking shoes for outdoor activities and field trips. None of your casual attire should be ripped, frayed or have obscene words/graphics or profanity.
- Self Identifying Young Women: Three dresses and/or dress suits (either with skirts or dress pants) and one business/professional outfit for the final presentation- not formal attire. You should pack comfortable shoes for daily activities (comfortable flats are appropriate). Also pack casual attire (two or three shirts, shorts and/or jeans) and comfortable walking shoes for outdoor activities and field trips. Keep in mind that skirts and shorts should not be more than 4 inches above your knees, blouses/shirts should not be revealing, and sandals/flip-flops are not professional attire.

The temperature in Salt Lake City, Utah at this time of the year is approximately a High/Low (° F) of 91°/63°.

Cameras: Most places you will visit will allow you to take pictures.

Valuables: When traveling, it is often advised to leave your valuables at home. Sometimes these items are forgotten or lost and can never be replaced. Be careful in deciding which items to bring.

What you SHOULD Bring:

- Camera
- Toiletry items
- Hat
- Sunscreen
- Sunglasses
- Clothes that can get dirty
- Water bottle
- Walking shoes
- Writing utensils
- Professional attire
- Formal attire
- Wallet/Purse
- Backpack

→ Prescription Medication- Must be physician prescribed. Must include parental letter stating: time and frequency to be taken, food or drink needs (must be taken with food, 8 oz of liquid etc.) and ALL possible side effects.

Guardian Consent

I hereby give permission for my son/daughter/other to attend the LULAC National Youth Pre-Convention and Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah. I understand room and board will be provided at an on-campus dormitory for Pre-Convention and educational mentor/tutors will serve as chaperones 24-hour per day in the campus dormitories and all daily activities. I understand that in order to participate in the Pre-Convention, my child will sleep in the residence halls at the University of Utah, Salt Lake City for two (2) days of the LULAC National Youth Pre-Convention. During the Convention timeframe (Wednesday - Saturday), youth and their chaperones are to reserve rooms at the designated Convention Hotels. My son/daughter/other will be required to comply with the LULAC Pre-Convention and Convention, hotel and residence halls rules and regulations, as well as all Federal, State and Local laws and regulations.

I understand that the LULAC Youth Chaperones will provide security and will supervise all planned activities of my child. However, all participants must be in compliance with and abide by all rules, regulations and policies established by the LULAC Pre-Convention and Convention. The LULAC Pre-Convention and Convention personnel and chaperones will not be responsible for any accidents, injuries or other misfortune which may occur as a result of a participant's violation of these rules, regulations or policies.

If my child decides to leave the Pre-Convention and/or Convention voluntarily before the advertised end date, the LULAC Pre-Convention and Convention personnel will release my child only into the custody of the parent/legal guardian and will not be responsible for my child after he/she leaves the LULAC National Pre-Convention or Convention. All emergency leave expenses will be at the expense of my child and/or parent and/or agency. The LULAC Pre-Convention and Convention personnel reserve the right to dis-enroll my child at any time due to a violation of any rule, regulation or policy established by the hotel, convention center, or LULAC National Pre-Convention and Convention.

I understand and hereby acknowledge that certain risks are inherent to participation in recreational activities. These types of injuries may be minor or serious and may result from one's own actions, the actions or inaction of others, or a combination of both. I understand certain rules and regulations are designed for the safety and protection of participants and the LULAC National Pre-Convention and Convention personnel and I hereby undertake to abide by these rules and regulations. I understand that certain activities require a minimum level of fitness and health; that being physical, mental and emotional, and that each person has a different capacity for participating in these activities. LULAC shall not be liable for any injury to my person or loss to my personal property arising from, or in any way resulting from my voluntary participation in these activities. I declare having read and fully understand this parental permission form and informed consent agreement in its entirety and hereby consent to participation acknowledging all foregoing. I also declare that all information provided in this application packet to be true and accurate.

I give permission to the LULAC National Staff to use any slides, photographs, images, video and/or statements that may be taken of my child during the course of the program for marketing and/or promotional purposes.
