Emerge Conference:

Emerge is a multi-day Latino leadership conference located in Washington D.C. that provides 150 college students with advocacy training and public policy briefings on technology, education, and immigration. Emerge conference will be a 3-day, 2-night event. Our conference includes community service, networking receptions, policy development workshops, a career fair, legislative briefings, and advocacy visits on Capitol Hill. Attendees will also have access to participate LULAC's Legislative Awards Gala, an awards ceremony that recognizes key leaders who have served the Hispanic community across the country. Emerge attendees will be equipped with job readiness skills and tools to make real change in their communities.

About LULAC:

The League of United Latin American Citizens, the preeminent defender of the civil rights of the Latino community in the United States and Puerto Rico, works to advance the economic condition, educational attainment, political influence, housing conditions, health index, and civil rights of Latinos.
