Gala

Founded in 1929, the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) is the oldest and most widely respected Hispanic civil rights organization in the United States of America.

With over 132,000 members and supporters in 42 states and Puerto Rico, LULAC works to advance the economic condition, educational attainment, political influence, housing, health, and civil rights of Latinos through community-based programs operating in more than 1,000 LULAC councils nationwide.
