

LEAGUE OF UNITED LATIN AMERICAN CITIZENS

DEMOCRACY 2020 INTERNS

Position: Democracy 2020 Intern

Location: Washington, DC

Supervisor: Monica Sibri, Director of National Campaigns and Civic Engagement

Compensation: Unpaid, Transportation Stipend Available

Background: The League of United Latin American Citizens is the largest and oldest volunteer-based organization that empowers Hispanic Americans and builds strong Latino communities in the U.S. Headquartered in Washington, DC, with more than 1000 councils around the United States and Puerto Rico, LULAC's programs, service and advocacy aim to address the most important issues affecting latinos today and build strong communities for the future.

OVERVIEW:

- LULAC is seeking six energetic undergraduate and/or graduate students interested in civic education, voter registration, Get Out the Vote, organizing, and mobilization.
- Candidates must have excellent oral and written communication, research, and organizational skills.
- Having organizer skills and/or campaign experience is a plus.
- The selected interns will assist with the development, management and execution of LULAC's Democracy 2020 program.
- Selected Interns will also assist in any other capacity needed as it pertains to LULAC's yearly priorities.
- Selected Interns will oversee portfolios with programs serving diverse communities across the United States.

www.LULAC.org

Note: Applications will be reviewed as they come in. The deadline for Spring 2020 is December 29th and for Summer 2020 is March 26th.

ROLES & RESPONSABILITIES

All responsibilities are founded in collaborative efforts but each intern will have a portfolio with specific goals and reporting systems.

- Assist in branding and program development logistics
- Support in outreach and recruitment
- Work to effectively Implement national campaigns
- Work with local labor and community leaders to design and execute voter registration drives
- Active recruitment and training of volunteers
- Work with local partners to uphold and strengthen collaborations with other Latino organizations and networks.
- Assist in scheduling, planning and organizing events in Hispanic communities
- Assist with community engagement research, including collection of tools, data, and resources.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- All interns will gain professional experience in community engagement, program development and coalition building.
- All interns will master how to develop and executive national campaigns focused on empowering latinos and communities of color.
- All interns will increase their national network with direct mentorship in how to build and maintain relationships
- All interns will gain access to primary trainings and resources to help advance their professional careers.

HOW TO APPLY

Please send a resume, unofficial transcript, and a cover letter explaining your interest in the position and date of availability to Beatriz at Internships@lulac.org. Please, include "Democracy 2020 Internship" in your email subject. And CC' Monica at MSibri@lulac.org LULAC is committed to diversity among its staff, and recognizes that its continued success requires the highest commitment to obtaining and retaining a diverse staff that provides the best quality services to supporters and constituents. LULAC is an equal opportunity employer and it is our policy to recruit, hire, train, promote, and administer any and all personnel actions without regard to sex, race, age, color, creed, national origin, religion, economic status, sexual orientation, veteran status, gender identity or expression, ethnic identity or physical disability, or any other legally protected basis. LULAC will not tolerate any unlawful discrimination and any such conduct is strictly prohibited.

www.LULAC.org