LULAC WOMENS COMMISSION

WHEREAS LULAC has long been recognized that the Hispanic/Latina communities enhance the culture, economic and well being of the residents and citizens within the diverse U.S. Population and

WHEREAS the Hispanic/Latinas continually demonstrate strong work ethics and family values that work and benefit our country, and

WHEREAS, the Mexican/Hispanic/Latina population has come under direct attack from the highest pulpit in the US and perhaps even the world, the US White House President of the U.S. And

WHEREAS, the LULAC Women's Commission at its duly convened meeting in Milwaukee, WI. on July 10, 2019 voted to organize, with a plan and necessary resources to fight this unwarranted attack on our communities.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, The Women's Commission will develop a strategic plan and obtain the necessary resources to mobilize the Latino/Hispanic vote during the 2020 Presidential election to defeat the present resident in the White House; and Be It Further resolved that the 2019 LULAC Assembly fully supports the Womens commission in the proposed most worthy initiative and encourages all support from the LULAC membership.
