KNOW YOUR RIGHTS!

It is very important to know your rights if the police or immigration (ICE) talk to you.

You have the right to get a lawyer before you answer questions. You can tell the officer that you want to talk to your lawyer first.

You do not have to answer questions about your legal status, where you were born, or how you came to the US. You can tell the officer that you have the "right to remain silent".

At your home, the police or ICE need a "warrant" or your permission to enter. You can ask them to slip the warrant under the door. You can tell them you will not open the door without a warrant.

You do not have to sign paper you do not understand. Wait until consulting with your lawyer before signing any papers.

IMPORTANT: Make sure the warrant is signed by a JUDGE, not someone from ICE.
