Tech Inclusion in the Future Workforce

Leadership Discussion on Diversity in Technology
1:30pm – 2:20pm, Shaw/LeDroit Park

The lack of diversity in tech continues to be a concern for many and an uphill battle for Latinos. The latest U.S. Census Bureau estimates that by 2060 approximately one in every seven people in the country will be Latino. Although Latinos make up a large portion of the workforce, only 26% of technology jobs are held by Latinos and only 2% by Latinas. This panel will feature experts who will provide their insights on issues at the intersection of technology and civil rights - including diversity in the media and the technology sector.

Opening Remarks: Rep. Tony Cardenas (CA29-Invited)

Moderator: Brent Wilkes, Chief Executive Officer, LULAC

Panelists: Jacquelyn Puente, Executive Director for External Affairs, Comcast/NBCUniversal/Telemundo
Celeste Carrasco, Director of Public Affairs, AT&T
Anais Carmona, Federal Government Affairs & Strategic Alliances, T-Mobile
Laura Berrocal, Senior Director, Policy and External Affairs, Charter Communications

Protecting the Environment in the Age of Trump

What the Rollback of the Clean Power Plan Means to Latinos
2:30pm – 3:20pm, Shaw/LeDroit Park

Scott Pruitt and the Trump administration announced the repeal of the Clean Power Plan and replaced it with a much weaker standard that could allow more dangerous carbon pollution from existing power plants. What are the implications of this rollback to our air quality and impact on the Latino community?

Opening Remarks: Rep. Raul Grijalva (AZ3)

Moderator: Amanda Aguirre, COO, GreenLatinos

Panelists: Alejandra Nunez, Senior Attorney, Sierra Club
Tomas Carbonell, Regulatory Policy Director and Lead Attorney, Environmental Defense Fund
Ramon Palencia-Calvo, CHISPA Maryland Director
